2006 Volleyball Preview

There will be 10 schools competing for the MIAA volleyball championship for the first time since 1995 (Missouri-St. Louis' last season in the conference).

This time, the schools will be split into two five-team divisions – East (Central Missouri State, Missouri Western, Northwest Missouri State, Southwest Baptist and Truman) and West (Emporia State, Fort Hays State, Missouri Southern, Pittsburg State and Washburn).

Teams will play a home-and-home set against the four teams in their division and once against the five teams in the other for a total of 13 matches.

The MIAA Postseason Tournament also expands to eight teams, with the top four from each division qualifying. The top seed in one division hosts the No. 4 team in the other division, and the No. 2 teams host their respective No. 3 seeds.

The top seeded survivor from the West (or the No. 1 East squad if all West schools are eliminated) will host the semifinal and championship rounds.

Even with a new coach, Truman (32-6, 13-3 MIAA) was able to repeat as conference tournament and regional champion in 2005 to make their fourth Elite Eight appearance in five seasons.

The Bulldogs' cause is helped by having five returning starters -- including All-America selections in senior OHs Sarah Shearman (.278, 4.26 ppg, 4.00 dpg) and Kelsey Wackerman (.274, 3.84 ppg, 6.26 apg).

The regular season MIAA crown eluded Truman in 2005 –the Washburn Lady Blues (31-3, 15-1 MIAA) earned that piece of hardware for the second time in four seasons.

While five starters are back for WU, including junior MH Tessa Jones (.285, 4.43 ppg), junior MH Mandi Cox (.373, 3.29 ppg) and junior OH Monica Miesner (.274, 4.42 ppg), they'll have to find a new setter.

Sophomore S Carolyn Raynes (7.90 apg) saw limited action in spot starts, and is likely to get the duty full time in 2006.

The Central Missouri State Jennies (26-10, 12-4 MIAA) will be trying to make their 24th straight NCAA-II postseason appearance in 2006.

CMSU lost a pair of key elements to their recent success, but do return junior MH Andrea Robertson (.271, 4.37 ppg), sophomore OH Brooke Butler (.249, 3.80 ppg) and senior OH/L Katie Tarka (4.74 dpg).

The vacant setter spot will have redshirt freshman Caitlin Pankratz and junior Ashlei Jandrey in competition.

Emporia State (24-8, 11-5 MIAA) qualified for their first NCAA Division II postseason berth last season, but like CMSU, the Lady Hornets need to find a replacement for a longtime starting setter.

Senior L/S Courtney Aguilar has setting experience, but keep an eye on a pair of freshmen –Kayla Nolte and Amy Byfield.

Senior RH Mandy Chutskoff (.234, 3.54

Senior Kelsey Wackerman split time in 2005 between outside hitter and setter for the Truman Bulldogs, and earned MIAA Most Valuable Player honors and All-America honors. • TSU Sports Information photo ppg) and junior OH Leah Griswold (.171, 4.42 ppg, 4.46 dpg) are among four returning starters for ESU.

An influx of youth had a hand in Pittsburg State (13-20, 6-10 MIAA) finishing below .500 for the first time since 2000.

The Gorillas have potential to bounce back this season, with five starters back – highlighted by sophomore RH Sammie Williams (.217, 4.96 ppg -- MIAA Freshman of the Year).

They'll need to find a new setter, with sophomore Sarah Brannock (3.48 apg) and redshirt freshman Emily Vosseler in the running.

All six starters plus the primary libero are back for Missouri Southern (11-22, 3-13 MIAA).

Leading the Lions into 2006 are senior MH Ashley Mehrer (.307, 3.51 ppg), sophomore S Sarah Joles (10.80 apg) and senior L Megan Norman (4.80 dpg).

Missouri Western (17-15, 7-9 MIAA) is one of two MIAA schools with new head coaches, as former assistant Kyprian Harasymowicz takes over for Cindy Brauck, who retired due to an illness.

The new Griffon mentor needs to find a setter, junior transfer Jessica Thompson will have to battle freshmen Jill Briant and Madison Benton for the job.

The returning starters include senior OH Melissa Malone (.191, 3.45 ppg), senior MH Ashley Blickenstaff (.309, 3.42 ppg), junior OH/MH Alyssa Berg (.323, 3.67 ppg) and sophomore OH Hallie Delagardelle (.205, 3.29 ppg).

Fort Hays State (16-15, 10-9 RMAC East) has just two returning starters for their initial MIAA campaign –All-RMAC senior OH Kellyn Thaut (.221, 3.97 ppg) would have made it three, but will redshirt this season.

Anna Tool comes to Northwest Missouri State (15-19, 5-11 MIAA) from Virginia Wesleyan, and hopes to get the Bearcats into the MIAA postseason. Northwest just missed the last two years.

Both setters used last season are back – senior Molly Hankins (6.06 apg) and junior Katie Stilwell (4.85 apg). Top scoring senior OH Sarah Trowbridge (.221, 4.19 ppg) returns as well.

Southwest Baptist (4-30, 0-16 MIAA) has five starters back for 2006, led by sophomore MH/OH Whitney Stare (.235, 4.57 ppg) and junior S Chelsea Kenney (9.68 apg, 2.51 dpg).
