2006 Women's Soccer Preview

The Truman Bulldogs (10-7-3, 8-3-3 MIAA) may have won their seventh consecutive MIAA championship last season, but they did so with the fewest wins since double round-robin play began in 2001 and failed to make the NCAA Division II Tournament for the first time since 2000.

The Bulldogs were not the dominant offensive team of past seasons, and that left less room for error by a youthful defensive group in front of now-senior GK Lauren Davis (1.03 GAA, 5 ShO).

The team's top goal scorers – senior M Robyn Mortenson (5 g-0 a-10 pts.) and junior M Emily Newsham (5-1-11) – are among six other starters back along with Davis.

Three teams finished two points behind Truman – Central Missouri State (11-8-1, 8-5-1 MIAA) matched the Bulldogs in conference wins but couldn't get the points to break the spell.

The Jennies were like many teams last season, young and lacking collegiate experience – but the freshman served CMSU and others very well.

Sophomore F Hazel Cox (12-4-28) and sophomore M Caroline Twellman (9-2-20) will be back to provide scoring punch, but the battle will be for starting goalkeeper.

Junior transfer Elizabeth Casey and freshmen Shannon Ponsche and Lauren Bamvakais will be in the mix to start in net.

Missouri Southern (11-5-4, 7-3-4 MIAA) returns the reigning Most Valuable Player of the MIAA in junior GK Kaney Tyler (0.58, 10 ShO) along with the league's Freshman of the Year and leading scorer, sophomore M Nikki Llewellyn (14-2-30).

All totaled, the Lions return 10 starters from last season -- including senior B Jessica Buhman (0-1-1), along with junior Fs Erin Gfeller (6-2-14) and Lauren Kurelac (2-5-9).

In just three seasons, Washburn (11-5-4, 7-3-4 MIAA) went from a new program to conference title contender.

2006 MIAA Women's Soccer Preseason Coaches Poll

School	Pts.
1. Truman (5)	47
2. Central Missouri State (1)	39
Missouri Southern (1)	39
4. Washburn (1)	35
5. Northwest Missouri State	21
Southwest Baptist	21
7. Emporia State	14
8. Missouri Western	8

Points awarded on a 7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis. Coaches could not vote for their own school.

Much of that transformation can be attributed to the offensive boost provided by sophomore F Jessica Mainz (14-4-30), along with the efforts from senior F Jolene Silovsky (9-4-22).

Junior GK Jenna Hatlestad (0.80, 8 ShO) returns as the anchor of the Lady Blues' defense, but WU will have to find a replacement for first-team All-MIAA choice Lora Westling in the back.

Northwest Missouri State (5-8-5, 4-6-4 MIAA) played an NCAA Division II-record nine overtime matches last season and set a league record with five draws.

Maybe a healthy senior F Beth Gutchenritter (3-0-6 in 6 gms) will help turn some of those draws into wins, helping out senior F Kayla Griffin (6-3-15) on the offensive end.

After improving greatly on defense from previous seasons, the Bearcats return senior GK Alison Sheridan (1.38 GAA, 2 ShO) and sophomore B Jessica Braun (0-1-1) and junior B Krista Obley (0-1-1).

The Southwest Baptist Bearcats (4-9-4, 4-7-3 MIAA) will once again have an international flair thanks to this year's crop of recruits.

Newcomers are expected from France, England, Ireland and Brazil to contribute to SBU attempt to return to the NCAA postseason. The new blood will need to add punch to an offense which scored only 18 goals in 16 games last season.

Senior GK Sara Eppler (1.23 GAA, 5 ShO) is among seven returning starters.

The revolving door at Emporia State (7-9-3, 5-7-2 MIAA) accepted the Lady Hornets' fourth head coach in as many seasons – Jim Schneiderhahn.

ESU lost its top two scorers from last season -- the duo of Brandie Booth and Melodie Zdanek combined for 16 of the team's 17 tallies in 2005.

Playmaking sophomore F Sarah Tetuan (3-8-14) is expected back along with senior B Andrea Harris and sophomore GK Megan Martin (1.40 GAA, 1 ShO).

It second year, second coach for Missouri Western (3-15-1, 2-11-1 MIAA), as former CMSU assistant Jeff Hansen steps in for the Griffons.

The top three scorers are back for Western – senior F Michelle Polk (5-2-12), senior M Nikki Heiser (4-0-8) and senior B Melody Grayem (3-1-7).

The Griffons scored just 16 times in 19 games, and also will need to shore up a defense which surrendered 53 goals.
